

WAY OF ST. JAMES FROM SANTIAGO TO MUXÍA VIA BRANDOMIL

MANUEL VILAR ALVAREZ

SINOPSIS

This guide invites us to travel along an historical trail that is still largely unknown. It is the shortest route between Santiago de Compostela and Muxía, used by pilgrims and travellers for centuries, with the medieval bridge of Brandomil as one of its emblems.

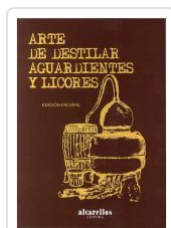

An 86-Km route that is presented here with all of its attractions: a map with stages, sites and monuments to visit, and illustrated with 75 striking photographs.

A practical guide that invites us to explore nature and history at leisure because in the author's words, "to walk old paths... is claim the future"....
